

Abdoul Wakhab Diouf

Ability

- For my abilities, I don't really have any physical or mental problem that prevents me from carrying out my daily tasks so I can say that I am an able-bodied person
- As an able-bodied person I have access to my work environment and I manage to work without encountering much difficulty
- However I am aware of the privileges I benefit from and I defend equal human rights for all

Religion

- I am a Muslim and in my country almost 95% of the population are Muslims
- And as a believer there are rules to respect such as performing the salat, the prohibition of drinking beer, reading the Quran etc
- there are also other religions in Senegal and we live in perfect cohabitation

Gender

- my gender is male and here men have responsibilities for example in religion men must guide family members and manage their financial situation

Ethnicity

- I am West African from Senegal and my ethnicity is Wolof
- I live in a village in “Lébou”, a village where the majority of men go to the sea and the women sell fish and I love their culture

Race

- I am black African and we often see how Africans are treated in certain countries
- Currently we are in a country where we feel safe because there is peace between the races
